Outlook Express E-mail Filtering

Open "Outlook Express"

Click the "Tools" menu

Click "Message Rules"

Click "Mail"

Click "New..."

Check the box that says "Where the subject line contains specific words"

The next section asks what you want to do with it – check the box to "Delete it"

The next section asks for a rule description – click on "Where the subject line contains specific words"

Click the blue link named "contains specific words". When the window opens, type in all the words you want to use for blocking junk mail.

Click "Add" or press enter after you type each word to add each new word.

Click "OK" when you are done.

The next section asks you to name the rule – type "Spam rule2"

Below is a list of words that are often used in spam e-mail. Add the words accordingly. It's also good to try to come up with your own words too. This is what people that send spam are paid to do: think of new words, tricks, etc. everyday to keep you from blocking it.

But remember, blocking these words from coming in means that even e-mails from friends that may have used one of these words in the subject line will be automatically deleted, so you may want to make an e-mail with the list in it and forward it to all your friends telling them what words you are blocking to keep from getting spam.
